

2016-2017 Governor's Educator of the Year

West Belmar School:

West Belmar School has been very fortunate to have Mrs. Rose Curry as a classroom and special education teacher for the past 18 years. Rose Curry is the ultimate professional! She has proven to be a dedicated educator who is constantly seeking best practices to improve her teaching skills. Her enthusiasm for learning is contagious to both students and staff. Rose Curry has been a teacher leader for years who consistently encourages, inspires and puts forth a tremendous amount of effort for her students, class, colleagues, district and school. West Belmar School is proud to have Rose Curry as the recipient of the Teacher of the Year Award for the 2016-17 school year.
