

2016-2017 Governor's Educational Service Professional of the Year

Primary School:

Kerry Betlesky is a paraprofessional who is considered by her many nominators to be: "genuine, caring, selfless, positive, energetic, extremely talented and hardworking." Her love for teaching and her students is palpable. She strikes a unique balance between being warm yet firm with her students. She always puts children first. She demonstrates caring, respect and kindness to both students and staff alike, and is so deserving of this recognition.
